

IRISH SOCIAL POLICY ASSOCIATION

AGM & SPRING LECTURE
Monday April 2nd 2007
6-8pm

Migrant Care Workers: Experiences in Ireland's Formal and Informal Economy

Speaker 1: Dr Virpi Timonen (Director of SPARC, TCD)

Dr Timonen's paper will report on current research being carried out by the Social Policy and Ageing Research Centre at Trinity College Dublin. This work focuses on the experiences of migrant care workers in the informal economy.

Speaker 2: Imelda Browne (Director of Nursing, Cherry Orchard Hospital)

This paper will present an overview of a number of issues and experiences relevant to the employment of migrant workers in the health care sector. It also considers implications for these workers, their employers and the patients they care for.

Times:

ISPA AGM 6-6:30pm; Lecture from 6:30-8pm (all welcome to attend both). Reception to follow the lecture.

Venue:

Management House Room (1st Floor), Dublin Institute of Technology, Faculty of Business, Aungier Street, Dublin 2 (signs inside the front door will direct you to the room)

For further details please contact the ISPA secretary Micheál Collins at secretary@ispa.ie